EMU Successfully Hosted 5th International Career Week

EMU is truly a world university

Organised by the Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU) Graduate Relations and Career Research Directorate (MIKA), in collaboration with academicians and experts in EMU, and in association with the Cyprus Turkish Chamber of Industry and the Cyprus Turkish Chamber of Commerce, the "5th International Career Week" started on Monday, the 27th of February 2017. The opening ceremony and conference took place at 10:00 at the Mustafa Afşin Ersoy Hall. The opening which drew heavy student interest was attended by Board of Trustees President İlker Edip, EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Necdet Osam, Mayor of Nicosia Turkish Municipality Mehmet Harmancı, Cyprus Turkish Chamber of Commerce President Fikri Toros, Cyprus Turkish Chamber of Industry President Ali Çıralı, EMU Board of Trustees member Recai Ergün, Vice Rectors and academicians.

During his opening speech EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Necdet Osam highlighted the importance of the 5th International Career Week, providing recommendations for EMU students regarding their career paths. Noting that EMU cannot be categorized as a standard university Prof. Dr. Osam stated "EMU is amongst the top 980 of 25000 world universities. EMU is truly a world university". Prof. Dr. Osam concluded by pointing out that the professionals who are going to share their experiences with the students via seminars will benefit the students immensely.

Following EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Necdet Osam's address, Chair of the Cyprus Turkish Chamber of Commerce Fikri Toros also delivered a speech in which he stressed the importance of entrepreneurship. Toros also talked about in which areas students may stand out of crowd and how they can contribute to the society. Defining entrepreneurship as the ability to think rationally and analytically, Toros added that Cyprus is in need of young entrepreneurs. Talking about the problems that young entrepreneurs may face, Toros reminded famous poet and playwright Bernard Shaw's unique quote "If you find a path with no obstacles, it probably doesn't lead anywhere". At the end of his speech, Toros advised the students not to be afraid of making mistakes as mistakes made in your career will support your development.

In his address, Chair of the Cyprus Turkish Chamber of Industry Ali Çıralı reminded the participants about the first EMU International Career Week which hosted about 40 participating firms and proudly announced that the number of participating firms this year has reached 130. Çıralı added that he finds EMU graduates very lucky as EMU hosts students from all corners of the earth. Çıralı concluded his speech by stating that each and every graduate of EMU has worldwide employment opportunities as it is a university with proven success at the international arena.

We are in need of young entrepreneurs

During the opening, a speech was also delivered by EMU Faculty of Business and Economics, Department of Political Science and International Relations graduate and current Mayor of Nicosia Turkish Municipality Mehmet Harmancı. Pointing out that EMU is of the utmost importance regarding democracy Harmancı who studied at EMU for a period of 6 years stated "EMU taught us to put up a fight whilst also teaching us about intercultural peace." In addition, Harmancı provided students with career advice stating that social life is important as well obtaining good grades.

ovascular Surgery Specialist Op. Dr. Çağın Zaim gave a presentation titled "Things To Do in Our Career Path". Noting that he gained the right to join the İstanbul University Cerrahpaşa

Medicine Faculty after finishing high school, Zaim stated that his heart was set on studying in Ankara. Therefore, Zaim made use of the opportunity offered by EMU: "I took the EMU entrance exam and gained the opportunity to study at Ankara University Medicine Faculty as a result of the protocol signed by EMU and the Ankara University Medicine Faculty. We registered to the university along with the highest placed 300 students from the Higher Education Examination-Undergraduate Placement Examination."

Zaim stated that at first other medicine faculty students had prejudices about students from the EMU quota and that with time these prejudices were completely broken. Zaim also mentioned that EMU helped them through difficult periods of their education. After the presentation in which Zaim
